Children, parents and grandparents invited to meet local author and illustrator

FARGO, ND — Avery Nubson, author and illustrator of “Pandas Paint in Pajamas,” will read from his new book and sign copies Saturday, October 4, at 3 p.m. Nubson will share details about his career and how he came to write the 60-page book.

There is no admission to the presentation, which will be held at Waterford at Harwood Groves, 1200 Harwood Drive in Fargo. Refreshments will be served.

The book incorporates full-color illustrations and according to the publisher is “a humorous adventure through the alphabet.” The story includes learning opportunities for children ages 3 to 8, guiding readers through the alphabet, animal species, verbs and articles of clothing.

“We invite people of all ages to come celebrate lifelong learning and share their love for books,” says Life Enrichment/Wellness Director Mary Tvedt. “This also is a wonderful opportunity to enhance connectivity among generations.”

Serving the Fargo-Moorhead metropolitan area since 1998, Waterford offers a wide range of retirement homes and lifestyle options and is currently home to about 140 people. The Waterford Health & Fitness Club is open to people 40-plus years and features a variety of fitness options, including a warm-water swimming pool that measures approximately 25 x 50 feet.
