Retired Fargo physician, published poet to give reading at Waterford on May 13

FARGO, N.D. — Poet John Manesis will give a poetry reading May 13 at 4 p.m. at Waterford at Harwood Groves, 1200 Harwood Drive.

There is no charge for the event, which is open to the public. Space is limited; people are encouraged to call (701) 476-1200 to reserve a seat.

Following the reading, Manesis will be available to sign books.

Manesis's poetry has appeared in more than 30 publications, including Midwest Poetry Review, California State Poetry Quarterly, Wisconsin Review, Mediphors, Zone 3, Loonfeather and North Coast Review.

A retired physician, Manesis has lived in Fargo with his wife, Bess, since 1974. Learn more about his poetry and publications at jmanesispoetry.com.
