SIP WINE AND SAMPLE CHEESE WHILE LOCAL AUTHOR SIGNS BOOKS

FARGO, N.D. — Well-known local author Mary Nelson will sign copies of her book “Delightfully Contrary” Thursday, October 19 from 4 to 6 p.m. at Waterford at Harwood Groves, 1200 Harwood Drive, during a wine and cheese tasting event.

“This charming book is a collection of Mary’s musings and columns that appeared in The Midweek and Midweek Plus,” says Life Enrichment/Wellness Director Mary Tvedt. “People will be able to talk with the author, tour Waterford, sip wine and enjoy cheese, crackers and fruit.”

There is no charge; people can call Tvedt at (701) 476-1200 for more information.

Nelson has been sharing her thoughts, feelings, hopes and dreams with the Fargo-Moorhead community for more than three decades. Her stories have earned her international acclaim. A Fargo resident since 1949, she and her husband have a blended family spanning three generations.

Waterford provides resort-style retirement and is currently home to more than 125 people. Serving the Fargo-Moorhead metropolitan area since 1998, Waterford offers a wide range of single-level homes, apartment-home floor plans and living options. In response to local demand, it is currently adding 60 independent-living apartment homes, eight duplex homes and a health and fitness club.
